The descriptions of what transpired are beyond human comprehension. The stories that leaked out of the dark shadows of Sobibor, Treblinka, and Auschwitz over 70 years ago still has the world scratching its head and asking; Why? But here is another question that looms before us today. And that question is, Could this happen again? Could the unthinkable happen twice? As swarms of belligerent and hate-filled ideologues swarm the sands of the Middle East ready to kill anyone who does not believe like them, or fit into their cultural mindset, could we be up against yet another Holocaust, this time supposedly sanctioned by Sharia Law? As the dreaded black flag of ISIS waves over toppled nations of the Mid East and their militants embark on a campaign that ruthlessly exterminates Christians, Jews and other religious and ethnic minorities simply for the crime of existing in their warped Islamic State, we have to ask, Is it happening again?
