

Obsession to Convict: One Man's Escape from the Justice System

By Les Morse

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 175 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Arriving at his son's home one day to find an alarming message, Les Morse entered a nightmarish ordeal. His son, Deryl, had been charged with murder. Obsession to Convict details the rigorous trials he endured and the heartache of a father and mother seeing their son falsely accused. Although Deryl's roommate, Suntana Potter, confessed to shooting the victim, he received a three-year sentence, and the DA went after Deryl. A string of witnesses changed their story every time the prosecutor encountered evidence that conflicted with his statements against Deryl. When his son was charged with murder, Les Morse and his family were thrown into a world that most families would be unable to withstand. Obsession to Convict offers an eye-opening account of how our court system can be abused by those in charge of our life and liberty. Discover the reality of courtroom justice in this compelling memoir.
