Seneca Falls Historical Society: 1908 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Seneca Falls Society

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Seneca Falls Historical Society: 1908 The next and last fad which has come forward claiming to cure dis ease is the so-called Christian Science, practiced by the disciples of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. I am told that there are some here in Seneca Falls and that they have meetings, whether to worship God or to perfect them selves in the practice of healing I do not know This subject is hardly worthy of being brought to your attention; but it is one of the fads of the profession, and like other fads, will in time to come have its place in the history of our noble profession. When I took up my residence in the county in 1865 the profession was in a deplorable state There was no organization, and very, few of the physicians depended exclusively on their practice for their living. Many of them kept drug stores. Had fruit farms, or carried on general farming. The fees were low, a visit to the home was half a dollar, and all office treatment and surgery in proportion. It was hard...

Reviews

A very great pdf with lucid and perfect explanations. It really is rally interesting throgh reading time period. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you question me).
