Excerpt: .his mind was calm and peaceful; and it was plainly perceptible, that earthly passions had died away, and that he was enjoying sweet foretastes of that rest into which he was so soon to enter. He would often say to me, My meditations are very sweet, though my mind seems as much weakened as my body. I have not had that liveliness of feeling which I have sometimes enjoyed, owing to my great weakness, but I shall soon be released from shackles, and be where I can praise God continually, without weariness. My thoughts delight to dwell on these words, There is no night there. ; I felt that the time of separation was fast approaching, and said to him, My dear, I have one request to make; it is, that you would pray much for George, during your few remaining days. I shall soon be left alone, almost the...
