J., August 21st, 22d, 23d and 24th, 1894 A bracing atmosphere, delightful bathing, and the numerous diversions of a popular seaside resort, contributed to make the Tenth Annual Convention of the Society of American Florists one of the most enjoyable yet held. Notwithstanding the attractions of the board-walk and the beach, there was a gratifying attendance at all the business sessions, excepting possibly, in the closing hours of the third day; the prominence given to the social enjoyment feature being apparently without detriment to the practical work of the Society. The Florists Club of Philadelphia had made elaborate preparations for the comfort and convenience of their guests of the Society of American Florists, and cordially received the visitors upon their arrival. A series of entertainments, mainly for the ladies, was supplemented at the close of the Convention, by a day of social enjoyment, of which a sail on the ocean and an evening entertainment on one of the piers were special features. The trade exhibition in Morris Guards Armory and Grand Army Hall was the most complete on record, and to those who studied it, it presented many suggestions of great educational value. The interior of Odd Fellows Hall, where the Convention was held, was beautifully decorated. A profusion of palms, hydrangeas, gladioli, and other decorative foliage plants surrounded the platform; the rear space being festooned with smilax and asparagus, and the walls lined with bunting. The Preliminaries. Following the appearance on the platform of the officers of the Society and members of the Executive Committee of the Society...
