McSweeney s Publishing, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Dorian Geisler s beguiling debut collection of poetry solves the problems of audacity--with audacity. A darkly uncanny romp through the lives of others, Geisler s fast-moving poetry and understated/maximalist aesthetic manage to convey a burgeoning world filled with strangers whose identities are playfully--sometimes diabolically--half-revealed. Flowers of Anti-Martyrdom is Kafka mixed with Tarantino; it s Invisible Cities--except instead of beautiful, imaginary cities, the poet introduces us to disconcertingly realistic humans in all their outlandish, casual perversity, exalted banality, and moral questionability. With Flowers, Geisler has written a collection that s open to as many readings as there are readers--and yet that s always a genuine, unambiguous delight.
