

Daily Ditties from Delron s Desk Volume VI (Paperback)

By Delron Shirley

Teach All Nations, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A ditty is actually a poem or a song, but I grew up with the Carolina colloquialism of a ditty being any short, pithy saying or writing. Having written only one noteworthy poem in my life, I m definitely not a poet, but I do hope that these few thoughts I m sharing in this little book will prove to be short and pithy enough to inspire a little something into your life each day. I once read that it s plagiarism if you steal from one person, but it s research if you steal from several writers. Another thing that I firmly believe is that none of us really has an original thought. Every thought we have is a result of all the input we have received. For most of us, the old saying might apply very aptly: GIGO -- garbage in, garbage out. If there is any good thought that comes out of our minds, it is because some good influences have entered our hearts; the most important of those positive influences would be the Word of God and the...
