For mischiefs sake, or so she thinks, she shows herself and shockingly initiates a conversation with this perfectly scrumptious little human being. Soon Peters life is changed forever. From the Fairies home dimension and the Neverland, a realm as cosy and boundless as a childs imagination, to Londons filthy streets and burning skies, Peter Pans true adventures are finally revealed. The facts about his adoption by the Fairies and his tempestuous, enduring relationship with Tinkerbell are told at last. Find out where he really got the Lost Boys and learn the surprise identity of Peters deadliest enemy. See what made Captain Hook tick, and discover the full story of Peter Pans romantic attachments to all the Darling girls. The lid is lifted too, on his combat record with the Royal Air Force...
