Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1993. N.A. Book Condition: New. 23 cms. xii, 312 p. ,This book is a purposive, exhaustive an altogether new ethnography on the Lisu, a little known ethnic group of the present state of Arunachal Pradesh. Through synchronic and diachronic description this volume tries to understand the culture and the problems of the Lisu in terms of historical perspective, linguistic affiliation, folklore, material culture, economic organisation, life cycle rituals, social organisations, social control, religious organisations, social control, religious organisation, world view, etiology and medical system and transformations. This ethnographic study aims at constructive Lisu culture as a whole. Lisu culture, like every other culture, primitive or modern, is a complex whole. This culture is not without inner contradictions or contracts, which in fact designs its own colourful tapestry. This ethnographic knowledge on the life and culture of the Lisu may be fruitfully utilised by the administrators, political leaders and the policy makers of Arunachal Pradesh for the efficient functioning of its government, because this book not merely raises the basic problems of the Lisu but also offers practical solutions to them which are common to many other ethnic groups of the present state of Arunachal Pradesh. Besides it will stimulate the interest of the anthropologists, sociologists, economists, linguistics, folklorists, historians, geographers, political scientists and the students of religions.
