We are here to commemorate these services, but before dwelling on them, it will not be inappropriate to notice briefly his early life. General Roswell Sabin Ripley was the son of Christopher Ripley, who was commissioned a captain in the United States Army, by President Madison, and served during the War of 1812. General Ripley was born in Worthington, Ohio, 14th of March, 1823; entered West Point Academy from New York, 1839, and graduated in 1843 with distinction in a class noted for its ability and proficiency. He was assigned to the Second Regiment of the United States...
