MOTHER GOOSE S MELODY OR SONNETS FOR THE CRADLE: A FACSIMILE REPRODUCTION OF THE OLLDEST KNOWN EDITION (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In 1904, Francis Power, (Grandson to the late Mr. John Newbery, author of the original 1765 edition of Mother Goose s Melody, republished his grandfather s work, adding a wonderfully informative Introduction and Notes by Colonel W.F. Prideaux, C.S.I. Nothing was taken away from the original work. This is a republication of the 1904 edition, omitting only the advertisements that appeared at the end of the original. The 1765 edition of these delightful nursery rhymes, filled with digital reproductions of the original illustrations, will delight children and parents alike. The rhymes contain hints of the history and culture of 18th Century England, and overflow with generations of tradition. The rhymes are accompanied by maxims and commentary designed to enrich the child s mind and instruct te child s moral development. The second part of the work contains selected verses by William Shakespeare. Read these nursery rhymes with your children, to keep alive the love of literature, and to help them develop skills in reading and speaking. You will find within riddles, stories, alphabets, counting games, and lullabies. From the Preface: UCH might be said in favour of this colleion, but as we have no room for critical disquisitions we shall only observe to our readers, that the custom of singing these songs and lullabies to children is of great antiquity: It is even as old as the time of the ancient Druids. Caraacus King of the Britons, was rocked in his cradle in the isle of Mona, now called Anglesea, and tuned to sleep by some of these soporiferous sonnets. As the best things, however, may be made an ill use of, so this kind of composition has been employed in a...
