Forgotten Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Department of State Bulletin, Vol. 46: April-June, 1962 You can, however, inform yourselves on foreign policy issues and as good citizens help formulate and support appropriate programs. There are also a few thoughts I would like to suggest to you in the field of education, which is one of the principal building blocks of our foreign policy in Africa at the present time. What, for example, should comprise the elements of good human relations with African students attending our colleges and universities? Here we have a group of students leaving their homes and friends and crossing a vast ocean to study among strangers. I think American students have a wonderful opportunity to further our foreign policy objectives by strengthening their bonds with the African students in their midst. Today's young Americans are in an excellent position to foster a wide range of improved human and intergroup relations among students and scholars from both continents.
