Michilan Under the Act of August 24, 1912 renders the wage earner is not merely that of increasing his capacity of pro-duction and the amount of his pay envelope. His raise in wages is simply a means to an end. The purpose of the library service is to assist in the community activities for the making of good citizens. In proportion as individual happiness and prosperity are due to broad public policy and liberal public institutions it may safely be assumed that the beneficiaries of such a government will assume their responsibilities of citizenship with grateful loyalty and pride. Our concern is not only with the worker or the employee as such but with his existence as a man with a life of his own and with his desire of enjoying and contributing to the communal, social and domestic life of today. A few months ago a visitor to our city and an interested observer of its growth remarked: The hum of your industries, the growth of your population and prosperity are most impressive. Are your provisions for the making of...
