Paperback. Condition: New. 182 pages. In his third published work, Antonio Cassone continues his memoir book series with season two. Opening the Naked Window picks up right where its predecessor Looking through the Naked Window left off. This story tells of a life lived to the fullest with all the joy, love, pain and loss that goes with it and the storyteller reveals himself with a no holds barred approach. The premise of what if your life were a weekly television drama series continues where chapters are episodes and installments in the continuing series are referred to as seasons. As you get deeper into the tale, you are drawn in to a world that is entertaining, full of sensual pulp, passionate and intense. You never know where it will take you, but you soon find out that it is not about the destination at all. It is about the journey. -----
