When we are tempted to be impatient, what can we remember? What kind of words and looks did Jesus always give the people? If he was very tired when the people came to him for help, what did he do? If we have the spirit of Jesus, what will we do when we are pushed and crowded? Who will give us a patient spirit? Does Jesus know how to help THE LILIES. SEE, Minnie, what a beautiful lily I have for you; and you, Carl; and you, Nellie and May. And here is one for myself. Are they not lovely? They are like little white bells. Who made this beautiful lily? Yes, God made it. Did you ever make a real lily, Minnie? Could you make one? Did you ever see any one who could make a real lily, --one that would grow and be sweet smelling? Smell of your lily. Is it not sweet? For whom did God make the lilies? Yes; he knew you would love to see them. Where do lilies grow? Yes, some grow in the water. They sit on the water just like little boats. All day long they send out their fragrance, and at night they fold their leaves close together and go to sleep. The next morning the sun wakes them up. The sun never needs to call the lilies twice, for they always wake up the first time....
