Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Record of the Hampden-Sydney Alumni Association, Vol. 16: January 1942 American Universities and for an equal period of time, those in charge of the College Administration have sought to meet the requirements laid down to entitle the college to this rating. Being a small college, meager in endow ment, limited in library facilities with the physical plant lacking in many desirable features, these things have presented the chief obstacles. We suppose it is necessary to fix some arbitrary rules or standards in this direction, for one can readily see that without adequate equipment an institution does not afford the student the means and opportunity of persuing his studies to the best advantage. However, the fact should not be overlooked that with the right kind of student and the right kind of instruction, these handicaps can and are Often overcome, SO that the graduate emerges from such college or university far better trained and equipped for his work than many who have had every kind Of advantage with which wealth can provide an institution. This being true, it is gratifying to...
