Excerpt from Southern Rhodesia; Despatch to the High Commissioner for South Africa: Transmitting Draft Letters Patent Providing for the Constitution of Responsible Government in the Colony of Southern Rhodesia, and Other Draft Instruments Connected Therewith 5. Clause 6 applies the existing; electoral laws, generally, subject to such amendments as might in the future be made by the Legislature. In the course of the discussion with the Delegation a suggestion was made that provision should be made for a system of proportional representation, but I have not felt able to introduce an electoral change of this importance into the Letters Patent. The matter is one which could, of course, be dealt with by the new Legislature. 6. The question has been considered in connection with Clause 8 whether provision should not be made for the automatic redivision of the Colony into electoral divisions at stated periods, as was done in the Transvaal Letters Patent of 1906. There is much to be said for this proposal, but the question is one which I would in the circumstances rather leave to the new Administration. I have, therefore, thought it preferable not to provide for this in the Letters Patent 7. Under Section 28, relating to the class of Bills to be reserved, it will be seen that the Governor will be required to reserve any law altering or amending the arrangements relating to the collection and allocation of mining revenue in force at the commencement of the Letters Patent under any existing law or otherwise or any law imposing any special rate, tax, or duty, on minerals in or under land within the Colony. In making this provision it is not intended to suggest...
