Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bo Dunway s young life has been fortunate. His parents are wealthy, and they provided him and his sister a loving environment growing up. He s never wanted for much, but he has a heart of gold. With his good grades and basketball scholarship, he s able to attend a prominent college, but he doesn t want to live out of state. He can t bear the thought of leaving behind the one thing he loves more than basketball. Stormy Reece. Stormy Reece grew up in the most unusual conditions. Meeting Bo and his family was the best thing that ever happened to her. They met behind the Mexican Restaurant he and his family frequented when he was seven, and she was five. Her single mother worked there most days and nights so Stormy was always there hanging out in the kitchen or in the back alley. Without a father figure in her life, she rebelled in her late teens. She went to parties with the friends she had made that were horrible influences, stayed out till all hours of the night and worried her mother sick. Bo and Stormy became inseparable until he reluctantly left for college. He promised he d never leave her. She believed him. Never again will she trust anyone but herself. He knew from the moment he saw her that he was going to marry her one day. Being forced to attend a college away from his home town, his promising career hangs in the balance as his concentration is only on one thing. Stormy. Will Bo follow his dreams or his heart and will they ever be able to live out their...
