By HENRY KRAEMER

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from American Journal of Pharmacy, Vol. 73: September, 1901 Edward Robinson Squibb was born in Wilmington, Del., July 4, 1819. His parents were James R. Squibb and Catherine H., his wife. His early education was received in Wilmington, and at the age of eighteen he was apprenticed to Warder Morris, a druggist in Philadelphia, and from 1837 to 1842 he learned the drug business with the houses of Warder Morris and J. H. Sprague. He had long desired to acquire a medical degree, and he rightly judged that there could be no better preparation for his work than experience in the drug business. In addition to this, as his parents means were slender, he could earn something, and, at least, be self supporting during these early years of study. As is so often the case with distinguished men, these early years were not marked by any especial aptitude for medicine or pharmacy, as he was himself frequently heard to declare. In 1842, at the age of twenty-three, he matriculated in Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia, and received the degree of...
