How a Family Was Made (Paperback)

By Paula B Anderson

Paula B. Anderson, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Nedra Lynch (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. How a Family Was Made tells the story of Mama and Daddy Evans, a young couple who love children, and how their family grew. Lily and Roma, biological daughters, are two and four years old when their parents decide to have more children, but through adoption. Three little boys complete the family, which becomes interracial. Instead of making a big deal of the boys differences, they are embraced as beautiful parts of the whole in a loving family of seven. The author uses gentle humor and love to describe this heartwarming story of her own family . This charming new book is a must read for families planning to expand by adoption. It s a valuable tool for parents in preparing young children for new siblings brought into the home through the adoption process. By reading the book to and with their children, parents can convey to the little ones what a joyous occasion the event will be. This fun little story was written by a real Grammy! Paula Anderson has always loved to write, and this...
