Here s a vision to inspire empower all beings by giving first-hand accounts on growth through change, as occurred through expression. Philosophized through theories in a transpersonal manner to serve a transcendental message through learning growing into sensitivity with self-awareness. These are vastly arising phenomena in times of perceived crisis. Disconnected from the earth, from ourselves. It s time to wake up. Somewhere between painting my feelings, dancing out my tensions, writing down my thoughts- i became inspired to share this clarity. This concept of truth that could very possibly lead us to bliss, to joy. Each person has their own version of it, observers on a path to that discovery. My experience exists to support encourage individuality, some kind of self mastery by breaking the mold of what s previously presented. There s no memo, just authenticity. There s no agenda, just a series of events that toggle between the unconscious the conscious. The circumstances weave the message of love, no matter a situation. A beautiful forgotten notion,...
