Bernard formerly with Virof Paris establishments in the same locality it is one of the daintiest and most charming. Along the lines of similar Paris establishments, it yet has an individuality which will not be forgotten by the visitor. The woodwork is in ivory white enamel and the walls in green and white. A pretty effect is produced by the exquisite furnishings in enameled willow, and a certain touch of coziness is suggested in the selection and arrangement of these pieces. A handsome cabinet, containing costly novelties and glittering coiffure pieces, is very effective. Vistas are well managed and inviting, with the result that there are no other than beautiful viewpoints in any part of the establishment. In every way the ensemble suggests that the character of millinery shown must be of the highest. care and an enthusiasm for the business, which seems to characterize the entire personnel of this house. Of the coats or rather short jackets, the newest and prettiest features are to be seriously considered, in order to make them up-to-date in appearance. The long shoulder and the kimona sleeve, or rather the kimona garment, have been most successfully launched and, when kept shapely, are most fascinating. Sleeves are a study...
