Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Neustadt is located south of Hanover on Grey Road 10 and north of Guelph and Kitchener. Neustadt is a picturesque rural Ontario village with German roots. The village s name is of German origin and it translates to new town. It was founded in 1856 by David Winkler, a settler from Germany. He purchased 400 acres from the government, laid out the town-site, dammed Meux Creek and built a sawmill. A flour mill and grist mill were also erected near the dam the following year. Winkler was the founder of many other institutions, including opening the first post office in town in the year 1857. John Weinert, a saddle maker from Prussia, moved into Neustadt in 1859 and established a tannery on the north side of William Street. By 1861, he had added a boot and shoe factory and supplied footwear to the settlers. Henry Huether, an immigrant from Baden, Germany, constructed a wooden frame Brewery; a fire in 1859 destroyed it. The brewery was reconstructed in fieldstone and reopened in 1869. The brewery continued to be successful until 1916 when it became a creamery. In 1997 it was reopened as Neustadt Springs Brewery which currently brews ten brands of beer. Desboro is a community in Chatsworth Township, Grey County and is located south of Owen Sound and near the community of Chatsworth. Desboro is about 13 kilometres west of Chatsworth and Williamsford. The first building in 1856 in the village of Desboro was a log school house. The Desboro hotel was built in 1869 and was one of the only rural taverns still operating in the township before it closed in 2011. The town hall was built in 1875...
