Green Trade Barriers
A Nightmare And A Blessing To Developing Countries

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | A Nightmare And A Blessing To Developing Countries | On November 12th, 2001, China entered into the WTO in the capacity of a developing country. This was an important step in implementing China's fundamental policy of opening itself to the outside world, and has created excellent conditions for its further participation in international trade and economic globalization. But in recent years, a new trend has appeared in world trade: some developed countries...
