

White Love and Other Events in Filipino History

By Vicente L. Rafael

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, White Love and Other Events in Filipino History, Vicente L. Rafael, In this wide-ranging cultural and political history of Filipinos and the Philippines, Vicente L. Rafael examines the period from the onset of U.S. colonialism in 1898 to the emergence of a Filipino diaspora in the 1990s. Self-consciously adopting the essay form as a method with which to disrupt epic conceptions of Filipino history, Rafael treats in a condensed and concise manner clusters of historical detail and reflections that do not easily fit into a larger whole. "White Love and Other Events in Filipino History" is thus a view of nationalism as an unstable production, as Rafael reveals how, under what circumstances, and with what effects the concept of the nation has been produced and deployed in the Philippines. With a focus on the contradictions and ironies that suffuse Filipino history, Rafael delineates the multiple ways that colonialism has both inhabited and enabled the nationalist discourse of the present. His topics range from the colonial census of 1903-1905, in which a racialised imperial order imposed by the United States came into contact with an emergent revolutionary nationalism, to the pleasures and anxieties...
