Life was headed in just the right direction, but then I found out that my boss was retiring. He was handing over the company to his son, and once I met Jake Manon, I knew that things would never be the same. Arrogant. Selfish. Player. Those were the words I would use to describe Jake. It was hate at first sight. Or was it really? Jake Jen was beautiful, and I admired her dedication to her job. But I hated that I was attracted to her. I hated even more that she ignored me without even realizing the sizzling attraction between us. I knew I was not good enough for a woman like her. I knew I should stay well clear of this feisty little red head. But then I kissed her . Each book in the Romantic Takeover series is a standalone with the happily ever after that you ll love.
