Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The National Bureau of Education, Its History, Work, and Limitations The Bureau of Education, an Office in the Department of the Interior, publishes the following statement of its origin, purposes, practical working, and publications, the numerous inquiries addressed to it on these points making it expedient to have some such method of answering correspondents. I. As To Its History. This Office had its rise in the need long felt by leading educators of some central agency by which the general educational statistics of the country could be collected, preserved, condensed, and properly arranged for distribution. The sense of this need found expression finally in the action taken at a convention of the superintendence-department of the National Educational Association, held at Washington, February, 1866, when it was resolved to memorialize Congress in favor of a National Bureau of Education. The following memorial was accordingly prepared, containing substantially the arguments for the establishment of such an Office by the Government, which had been submitted to the convention in a paper by Hon. E. E. White, of Ohio: Memorial. Memorial to the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States: At a meeting of the National Association of State and City School-Superintendents, recently held in the city of Washington, D.C, the undersigned were appointed a committee to memorialize Congress for the establishment of a National Bureau of Education. It was the unanimous opinion of the association that the interests of education would be greatly promoted by the organization of such a Bureau at the present time; that it would render needed assistance in the establishment of school-systems where they do not now exist, and that it would also...
