INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE ARAB REGION

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; International migration is a steadily expanding international phenomenon of long standing, which impacts on global economies and the political and economic relations between sending and receiving countries. One of the most important indicators of the dynamism and complexity of international migration is perhaps the fact that it is directly, rapidly and instantly affected by the challenges of globalization at the Arab regional and international levels. The first section of this report considers the trends...
