White Crow Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Eliza Bisbee Duffey (1838 - 1898) was an American feminist and writer who authored books on womens rights, women s health and sex education. Her books include, What Women Should Know (1873) and The Relations of the Sexes (1876). Heaven Revised was published in 1889. Heaven Revised is a narrative of the change we call death. It appears Eliza Duffey was a gifted medium with the ability to connect with spirit and automatic writing, although she claimed that she had scant knowledge of spiritualism and no prior mediumistic ability when she began to write down the words in this book. In the introduction she writes; during the entire period in which I was engaged in this writing - some three or four months - I lived and moved in a sort of dream. Nothing seemed real to me. Personal troubles did not seem to pain me. I felt as though I had taken a mental anaesthetic. I finished the work one Saturday evening. On Sunday evening I spoke as usual before our spiritual society. On Monday morning I awoke for the first time my usual self. Real life had come back to me. I believe that I wrote with unseen assistance, but I hesitate to ask others to endorse this belief. I hesitate even to express it, realizing as I do how often well-intentioned Spiritualists mistakenly attribute to the Spirit-world that which emanates only in their own too often ignorant and ill-informed minds. I know how difficult it is to draw the line between one s own thoughts and impressions, and those that result from inspiration from higher sources. The narrator of the book, a woman - writing through...
