Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 102 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Excerpt from Play and Athletics: Care of the Body, Playground Games and Equipment, Athletic Contests, Organization of Meets, Leagues, Etc. This Bulletin is primarily for assisting members of the University Interscholastic League in the organization and conduct of athletic contests, in training for the same, and in matters of physical education and playground activities generally. The Constitution of the League provides for county and district contests and a final meet in athletics, as well as contests in debate and declamation. Many teachers, especially in rural schools, have had no training in organized play and athletics, and consequently hesitate to enter their schools in the contests. This Bulletin is designed to aid such teachers, as well as the pupils. The detailed rules governing regular track athletics are given in the Bulletin containing the Constitution of the League, hence they are not repeated here. The annual membership fee for each school in the League is 1.00. This fee should be sent to E. D. Shurter, Chairman, or to A. J. Robinson, Treasurer, University Station, Austin, Texas. Payment of the fee entitles a school to...
