Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . American Country Poetry is the quintessential 100-poem historical depiction and romantic fantasies of American farm life in the mid-20th Century. Background poems tell stories of the early pioneer settlers. Farm and country life at the time was centered around the nuclear family and relatives, powerful work ethic, instilling American patriotic and Christian loving values in the children, and paying attention to rectitude in moral dilemmas. The author lived until the age of thirteen in South Dakota and considers himself fortunate for the experience and strength given him by the hard farm life on the rolling prairie. Sections of the book include: Down on the Farm, Nostalgic Americana, Country Life and Love, Horse Sense, Common Sense, Country Songs, Horse Play, Politics, Christian and Patriotic, and Things That Matter. Adults and children alike will enjoy the humor of poems like Bossy Cow, My Outhouse Memories, Ode to Toilet Paper, and The Day I Met a Skunk. Nostalgic poems include, The Pickle Barrel, My Patchwork Quilt, and Out Past the Haystacks. Historians will love The Battle of Bonesteel and the story of my Grandfather proving up a claim near the Black Hills. Advice in the poems is pervasive, but particularly trenchant in the ones about Advice from a Farm Boy, Sharing Secrets, and The Art of Persuasion. Discover Farm and Country Love in poems like First Kiss, I am Thankful for an Angel, Lover s Shock, Once Upon a Summer Dream, and If You Ever Fall in Love. Personal Farm Memories include A Farmer s Spring, Autumn Came So Suddenly, Down on the Farm, Fifties Country Living, My Old Farm, and I Lived in Pleasant Valley. Contemporary Poems include Ribbon World, Truth is not...
