

HISTORY OF THE THIRD INFANTRY DIVISION IN WORLD WAR II

By Taggart, Donald G.

Battery Press. Condition: BRAND NEW. BRAND NEW Oversized Hardcover in Dark Blue Cloth issued without jacket - Reprint of the Original Unit History - Still in original Publisher Shrinkwrap - 575 pages - 286 photos - 38 maps - Originally published in 1947 by the Infantry Journal Press. Details on the unit as follows. Overseas: 27 October 1942. Campaigns: Tunisia, Sicily, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, South France, Rhineland, Central Europe. Days of combat: 233. The 3d Division is the only American Division which fought the Nazi on all fronts. The Division first saw action in the North African invasion, landing at Fedala, 8 November 1942, and capturing half of French Morocco. On 10 July 1943, the Division made an assault landing on Sicily, fought its way into Palermo before the armor could get there, and raced on to capture Messina, thus ending the Sicilian campaign. Nine days after the Italian invasion, 18 September 1943, the 3d landed at Salerno and in intensive action drove to and across the Volturno and to Cassino. After a brief rest, the Division was ordered to hit the beaches at Anzio, 22 January 1944, where for 4 months it maintained its toe-hold against furious German counterattacks. On...

READ ONLINE
[6.71 MB]

Reviews

This composed book is fantastic. it absolutely was writtern quite properly and helpful. I am very happy to explain how this is the very best ebook i actually have read during my own existence and may be he best pdf for actually.

-- Prof. Elody D'Amore

The ideal publication i possibly go through. It is amongst the most awesome publication we have study. I am just easily will get a satisfaction of studying a published publication.

-- Shanie Cartwright