Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: .that everyone of you, the night before you go into the Temple, before retiring to rest, will go by yourselves, in secret prayer. Offer up your prayers to the Lord, and pray that your sins may not only be forgiven, but that you may all have the Spirit of God and the testimony of the Lord Jesus Christ; that the Spirit of God may be with those who assemble in that Temple. In the afternoon the proceedings in the Tabernacle closed, the conference being continued in the dedication services in the Temple. When the sixth of April, 1893, was ushered in, the sky was overcast with lowering clouds, through which there were occasional glimpses of sunshine. A strong breeze from the northwest gradually increased in violence until by ten o'clock the wind was blowing a perfect hurricane. From that hour until noon it seemed as if the prince of the power of the air was giving vent to his fiercest wrath. Then there was a slight fall of rain and snow, and the wind softened to a gentle breeze. But the atmospheric disturbance did not deter any who were privileged to attend the opening dedication service. It was not possible for all who desired to do so to gain ingress to the Temple. Twenty-five hundred people were admitted. These began to pass through the building at 8:30 a. m., following the route outlined in the description of the Temple interior, until they reached the grand...
