Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Short story novel of historical horror and dark fantasy, featuring 7 SNM Mag published stories and 7 new ones. Debut novel authored by Jeff Parsons. 216 pages, 67,500 words. Edited by Steven N. Marshall. Artwork by Samantha Marshall. Fiction. When your life becomes a dream from which you cannot wake, your nightmares slowly take shape within your own darkness, forming shadows of helpless fear, anxiety and horror. The end of sanity is near and, even though you can sense it, it is not yet defined, and is quite inescapable. Jeff Parsons Experience the dangers of knowledge without wisdom and the need to acquire magical power without the restraint to wield it, as a shaman encounters a corrupt secret agent. The desperation of a woman about to die may override the price required to stay alive from a greedy doctor. The sadistic need to hurt the one she loved leads to the ultimate act of selfishness by a woman too jaded by her marriage to care. In a last effort to cure a disease, the government requires a few human guinea pigs for their new experiment. A conscious awakening occurs in an inanimate object that only wants to cure people's pain. The best of intentions lead to the deadliest of consequences as a man is possessed by a demon who must do good to be spared from Hell. Hope flourishes as a devastating plague strikes down mankind in a post-apocalyptic world of grim uncertainty. Some legends are made from the evil that men inflict upon others, just like in the Salem witch trial days. Mining operations go too deep when a team of explorers uncover an ancient myth from yesteryears past. A boy...
