Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Scarcely two hundred soldiers are cobbled together in a remote post between Baghdad and Fallujah after months of exhausting heat, squalor, and privation. They are isolated inside the Sunni Triangle near an insignificant town called Abu Ghraib. They are both protected and trapped by the walls of a prison that had once been a monolith of Saddam's ruthless regime, a compound that had for decades been a factory of brutal torture and barbaric executions. Palace of the End takes you on a journey to Abu Ghraib prison, a journey that first passed through a squalid detention center called Camp Cropper in the summer of 2003. Travel to the Iranian border on a mission that resulted in civilians inadvertently herded into a mine field. Enter the interrogation booth and meet dozens of Iraqi detainees, share their stories, and learn their fates. Enter...
