In making this assertion, we have taken into consideration, the general advance of the human race in knowledge, and we did hope also in virtue, and that this is particularly true of the favored inhabitants of Massachusetts, than whom we do believe there is no other collection of people on the globe, where information is so generally diffused, or deportment more morally correct. How could it happen, that in the midst of such a people, such an outrage against humanity should be perpetrated? It is impossible that the ostensible causes which led to it could be the true ones. The unfounded and...
