

Off the Beaten Track: Rethinking Gender Justice for Indian Women

By Madhu Kishwar

Oxford University Press, New Delhi, India, 2002. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Presented here are some of Kishwar's best essays, each tackling a topic of vital concern for Indian women today: dowry, unwanted daughters, the denial of co-ownership rights to wives, women's land rights, love and marriage, sexual harassment, living identities vs. acquired ones and the politics of beauty contests. On an introspective note, she examines her estrangement with ism-driven' politics and her reservations about being labelled as a feminist'. Printed Pages: 304.
