Told through first person narrative, blogs posts, letters, and lyrics, Reagans Lovetrust creates a literary collage of a group of young students as they search for true connection on their campus. Written while the author was still in college, Reagans first novel gives a complete view of at the broken way the current generation gives and gets love. Part romantic comedy, part campus novel, and part coming of age tale, Lovetrust follows Kurt Jones as he attempts to connect with the women in his life during his junior year of college. Lovetrust is populated with characters grappling with their need for connection. Noni is searching for her missing brother, Gerard is searching for a talent he can turn into an identity, and Kurt is searching for a girl whose online journal has convinced him that shes his soulmate. Fans of Bret Easton Ellis Rules of Attraction, and F. Scott Fitzgeralds The Beautiful and Damned will be thrilled by this contemporary campus novel. This item ships from multiple locations.
