Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .NEW: Teaching Moment Ideas for Parents, Grandparents and Teachers Just like Children, Little Dinky has to Do Things he Doesn t Really Like to Do Spring into the action with that mischievous cat Little Dinky as he dodges his bath only to launch himself on a surprising journey. Author J.E. Bell revives this wild escapade from the original comics distributed by Dell Comics in the 1950 s. Little Dinky thought no one could jump as far as he could. When he finds Pig and little pig attempting to jump over a mud puddle and failing, Dinky brags that he can jump it but winds up smack in the middle of the puddle, too. Joan comes out to find her Little Dinky covered in mud and drags the resisting cat home to give him a bath. Before she can get him in the dreaded water, Dinky escapes and hides in the laundry basket where he is certain Joan won t find him. To his astonishment, the hamper starts to move and now the little stow-away finds himself on the ride of his life. Follow a frightened, confused Little Dinky as he goes on a voyage through a one hour laundry machine, splashing into water, flying down chutes, swirling around and around in soapy water and facing down wrapping machines that go CRUNCH! Can he survive the scary one-hour laundry? More important, will Little Dinky get home again to Joan? Find out in Little Dinky and the One Hour Laundry, a classic tale that delivers a fun-filled time. The talented author of the Vintage Comics collection thrives with her husband, kids, and many fans in writing and publishing children s stories. The books of the...
