NORMALIZATION OF MODERN MONETARY POLICY

Uni-Edition Jan 2018, 2018. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - It has been almost a decade since central banks, in the face of the global financial crisis, implemented a set of unconventional initiatives. The end of the first decade of the 21st century has started a new period in central banking - a period of non-standard and unconventional monetary policy instruments, used in unprecedented scale and scope. Monetary authorities' action have included mainly low interest rate policy, unconventional liquidity support programs...
