Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Son of Cain mingles fantasy and the pre-deluge biblical history of the Noachian world in a powerful story that explores man s brokenness and the scope of God s grace. Dar ock, a descendent of Cain, believes that the curse placed on his forbearer and his forbearer s progeny is unfair, and yet he struggles with his own fallen condition. Ignoring the evil of his ways, he resents the fact that he should suffer the curse of Cain, and determines to search for the god that cursed his lineage. He would have words with him ! In the midst of his quest, Dar ock is ambushed by a troglodyte whom Dar ock bests. Taken as Dar ock s slave, Garfe proves to be a constant challenge. The troglodyte serves an enchantress who has supernatural powers, and he lures Dar ock into the tangles of her evil web. Once within the walls of the enchantress lair, Yennea, a young slave-girl, becomes his conscience and confronts him with kindness he does not comprehend. However, in his self-serving arrogance he remains determined to confront God with injustice, which leads him to seek the Hidden City and a crazy man who is building a huge boat in a waterless land. Choices he makes have a price and lead to a powerful conclusion to his quest.
