NATIONAL TRUST, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Nowadays many of Gibside s buildings lie in ruins. But this was once a grand Georgian estate, home to one of the most powerful families in England, the Bowes. This guidebook reveals how they built their fortune - and Gibside - and the scandalous tale of how one, the `Unhappy Countess Mary Eleanor, was held captive here by her deceitful husband, Stoney Bowes. These pages also offer an insight into Gibside today: the wildlife that now calls it home; a handy `Spotter s Guide to some of the estate s lesser-spotted features that can be ticked off during your visit; and the initiatives the National Trust is taking to create a peaceful retreat for visitors and nature.
