

Why Do You Not See What I Want? (Paperback)

By Sandra Dee Rich

Rosedog Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When we look at the sexual stigma that causes discrimination, heteronormativity is the discrimination of any group other than a heterosexual group. It creates inequality in the workplace and in society. The lack of lesbian representation in the media is an example of how uninformed society is due to inaccurate media portrayal of lesbians and gay men. In many cases the only information society receives is based off what is presented by the media. Many people in our society think that gay people are like the plague. This is hurting the children, women and men who are trying to face who they are and understand why they are who they are. Schools are quick to tell the cameras and concerned parents that they take bullying seriously, but their words are as empty as the words of the bullies are strong. The fact is school officials know little about the social dynamics before their very eyes, or don't care to know. They brush aside complaints as boys being boys or girls trying to find their way, but our youth are far more sophisticated...
