Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .- .C est bien ainsi que les choses se sont passees; les inscriptions le prouvent. Les pays que le Rhone traverse et qu il relie a la Mediterranee, la premiere Lyonnaise, la Viennoise, l ancienne province romaine, sont ceux qui ont conserve les monuments chretiens les plus antiques. N en peut-on pas legitimement conclure qu ils furent conquis avant les autres par le christianisme ? Mais ces monuments eux-memes sont bien recents quand on les compare a ceux de Rome. On a trouve dans les catacombes une inscription de l an 71, c est-a-dire du commencement du regne de Vespasien. La plus ancienne inscription datee de la Gaule est de l an 334, de l epoque ou le christianisme venait de triompher avec Constantin. A la verite, quelques-unes de celles qui ne portent point de date remontent plus haut. Une d entre elles, gravee sur une tombe brisee de Marseille, rappelle par la facon dont elle est redigee celles des catacombes. On y lit ces mots: A Sentrius Volusianus, fils d Eutyches, et a Sentrius Fortunatus, ses enfans tres pieux, qui ont souffert le martyre du feu, leur mere Eulogia a eleve cette tombe. Que celui qui peut tout nous donne le rafraichissement, refrigeret nos qui omnia potest ! C est la peut-etre le monument le plus ancien de la foi chretienne dans la Gaule.-.
