

The Dijon Discovery: The Seventh Book in the Chateau Sarony Series (Paperback)

By R C S Hutching

On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People don t just disappear. They are not there one second and gone the next. Flesh and bone doesn t simply reduce itself to its component atoms and become invisible to the naked eye. On the other hand, seeing is believing. Signoret was a man in his early fifties and although no more than five feet ten inches tall, was broadly built with a deep chest and powerful shoulders. He looked the Englishman directly in the eyes and in his smoker s voice, growled I think it is a matter of murder, Marti. Let me explain in more detail. You know I told you I had bought some land over to the west of the city? Well, to be precise, it was a derelict former football ground - originally home to one of several Dijon based clubs formed around the time of the first world war. The club was called Dijon Olympique and became very successful very quickly. They had on their books a player by the name of Didier Lebrun, who if playing today would be described as world class...
