E6 2007l OCLC Number: (OCoLC)747425866 Excerpt: . . . 11 that there is always some degree of uncertainty, but I would like to have your commitment that you will do everything you possibly can so that that report can be completed in a timely manner prior to the end of the fiscal year, so that that project can be properly considered by Congress. General V A. Senator, you have my commitment. I AN NTWERP might just add, after our conversation, my aide pulled up Poplar Island, and what was done there is just a magnificent project. On this particular project, I am told by the corps after we checked on it yesterday, was that everything is there for the Chiefs report. All the information is there, so that it will go before a review board in July, and there is a strong likelihood by Labor Day, you could have the Chiefs report. Senator C. I thank you for that. It will be extremely helpful ARDIN for the work of this Congress in dealing with the authorization. I thank you for that. Just generally, tell me your view as to the use of dredge mate-rials for this purpose. It seems to me that Poplar Island dem-onstrates that this is a real win-win situation. I would hope that we would be looking for other opportunities where we can help commerce as well as help the environment. General V A. I think in the right circumstances, it is AN NTWERP an excellent model. The disposal of the dredged materials is a huge issue, and it is going to become an even bigger issue as...
