Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If the past is the prologue, where the hell are we going? Americans from every region of our battle-scarred cultural landscape can point to some event, person or movement that has damaged our country's well being. What if all this divisiveness continues to tear at the fabric of our society? Where are we heading? What will become of America? A SIMPLE REBELLION explores these questions, taking us to a near-future America extrapolated from our recent national behavior to provide a glimpse of what we may be doing to our culture, our country, and ourselves. A Simple Rebellion is an action-packed, funny, dark, and poignant love letter to America - and a roadmap for how we might all make it through the bleakest of times unscathed. Christopher Ryan expertly integrates social commentary into his narrative with a style reminiscent of Richard Matheson and Rod Serling's best works. - Caseen Gaines, author of We Don't Need Roads: The Making of the Back to the Future Trilogy and The Dark Crystal: The Ultimate Visual History Through sry, humor-laced dialog, Ryan unfurls an Orwellian landscape pitting the fanatical president of a fractured, dysfunctional America uncomfortably close to our own against an unlikely hero who must ignore his own grief to rally a broken nation. Quick paced and provocative. -Mike Rogers, former Senior Editor, Library Journal Christopher Ryan earned his MA and Rutgers University's English Award for Highest Distinction in Literary Studies for his master's thesis - a first novel, City of Woe, which he published independently through his Seamus and Nunzio Productions company. The debut novel earned's first-ever Book of Exceptional quality and Best New Voice (fiction) honors from the...
