

CITY PERMACULTURE : TWO

By -

Earth Garden Books, Trentham, Vic, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Here's where you find the practical information and inspiration to move along the pathway to the good life in the city. City Permaculture is packed with detailed advice, ideas and descriptions of how to incorporate satisfying sustainable living practices into small spaces. You don't need a hundred acres and a bulldozer to grow your own food, harvest your own rainwater, make your own solar power, or collect your own chooks eggs or honey. It's all here in volume two of this spectacularly-successful new book series from the makers of Earth Garden magazine. People from all walks of life are part of a worldwide urban revolution: they're rising to the challenge of turning our cities green, productive and attractive, while keeping all the best attractions of inner city living. Now there's need to wait: you can get started with sustainable living right here and w, regardless of how small your living space might be. City Permaculture is the present and the future - for our homes, our cities and our planet. Australian. 96 pages, full colour, printed on environment-friendly wheat straw paper.
