Archeil, a Native-American in Alaska, feels the light cut through him. Now the sun sets to the north of where it belongs. He consults a tribal elder, but the man won't tell Archeil the light's identity. A mother and her young daughter miraculously escape the great Los Angeles earthquake. Now they both know the secret: The light isn't something, it's someone. The world is under observation, but to what end? The pope with a dark secret suddenly has a vision that will forever change the world—but how to accomplish it? A reprobate Colorado pastor whose family died in his place is running from God. Can he escape the Holy Father's vision of a new world? Reconnaissance takes you on both sides of the veil of eternity.
