

Their Last Dying Acts

By R. Thomas Riley

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 242 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Their Last Dying Acts captures the true essence of the horror genre displaying the breadth and depth of an authors imagination. Riley does not hold back on the horror as he leads the readers through tales that feature monsters, both the imaginary and human kind, and horrific circumstances that can occur either in the darkest corners of the night or the brightest sunny day. From splatterpunk to psychological, from a snapshot of real life horror to a Twilight Zone unreality, these stories show the genius of a writer who can adapt his writing to wherever the story takes him. With stories like, Surveillance, a gritty police story, featuring a robot who would be man--a thoughtful allegory about racism in our society, very well-disguised and Heal Thyself, a story about the use of religion as a means of deception and the old motto of What goes around, comes around, to No Strings Attached, a weird and thought-provoking story worthy of an episode of Rod Serlings The Twilight Zone. Nowhere is safe in the imagination of R. Thomas Riley. Captures the true essence of the...
